the organics. He also asked the commission about their thoughts on volunteering for an organics booth to engage with residents about this program.

Commissioner O'Brien wondered about the chance of information of the organics would be lost with the other number of things going on in the city.

City Engineer assured there are other plans to get communication out to residents, either it is putting a note on the bill, putting up yard signs, and posting on social media. She also mentioned if the commission had ideas or feedback to let staff know.

Commissioner Hartnett suggested the national night out event. It would be another way to outreach and educate the residents.

Staff Reports City staff along with the Commission briefly reviewed the annual Environmental Resource Events.

Commissioner Reports Environmental Specialist provided a response to the idea of native planting around city property. He wanted to clarify it wouldn't be possible until 2026.

Adjournment Chair Hartnett adjourned the meeting at 8:09 p.m.
